Victory All-Afro Conference

The Victory All-Afro Conference, held March 1-4 was an incredible success. It was a time of fellowship, ministry in the prophetic, powerful teaching and a time of unity building for the African Victory Family. With 13 different nations represented at the conference it was a powerful time of unity and relationship building. Included in the conference was a VCI Graduation as well.

Following the conference Dr. Hazel Hill and Pastor Terri Murphy traveled to Kisumu where they held a women's conference. It was a fantastic time! At the same time a missions team from Cold Lake completely renovated the Nursery School Classrooms an open house was held for the families of the children. It was a great trip!

- For more leaders to be raised up in each nation. The harvest is ready, but the laborers are few.
- Unity among the African nations and that they would see many come to the knowledge of Christ and that He would be glorified.
